

Community Conduct Policy - Students

Rationale & Aims:

At Cranbourne Primary School all students have the right to participate in daily school life in a safe, caring and engaging environment. Students also have an obligation to contribute to creating and maintaining this environment through their actions, making correct choices and approaching necessary work requirements diligently.

Implementation:

Rights	Responsibilities
Students have a right to: - Attend school and participate fully in all the school has to offer. - Access all learning programs available to them and expect that opportunities will be made available. - Access recess times in a safe environment where problems encountered are dealt with in an efficient and effective manner. - Be challenged by dedicated teachers who are committed to the school's belief systems and educational programs. - Feel secure and valued so that all learning is undertaken at an optimal level. This can be achieved by teachers developing meaningful relationships with the children in their care through class discussions, celebrations of achievements, taking interest in the lives of the children in their grades, listening to children when they have a concern and ensuring that children are not subject to bullying behaviour.	Students have a responsibility to: - Participate fully in the school's educational program and to attend regularly. Students should also be expected to display positive behaviours that demonstrate respect for themselves, their peers, their teachers and all other members of the school community. - Demonstrate respect for the rights of others, including the right to learn, will contribute to an engaging educational experience for themselves and other students. - As students progress through school they will be encouraged and supported to take greater responsibility for their own learning and participation as members of the whole school community. This involves developing as individual learners who increasingly manage their own learning and growth by setting goals and managing resources to achieve these goals. - Students should, with support, be expected to participate fully in the school's educational program and to attend regularly. Students should also display positive behaviours that demonstrate respect for themselves, their peers, their teachers and all other members of the school community. - Students should attend school and external educational outings (excluding camps) in correct school uniform - Travel in a respectful and safe manner to and from school, whilst wearing school uniform.

Evaluation:

This policy will be reviewed as part of the school's policy review cycle.
