

In response to the government announcement today, which has put Victoria into a 5 day lockdown, the following educational activities have been prepared for your child to complete at home between Monday 15th – Wednesday 17th February 2021

Middle - Home Learning Tasks

Please select activities from the table below to complete in the workbook provided.

Reading	Writing	Maths
Read a text and write a summary in your workbook	Write a story in your workbook.	Practice reading the analogue clock
Read a text and talk about with a family member	Write a letter to a friend	Create number counting patterns in your workbook
Read a text and write text connections in work book - text to text, text to self, text to world	Create a comic strip	Measure a variety of objects in your house. Draw, label and order them in your workbook.
Read a text and draw a picture in your workbook	Write a written review of an online game	Play addition or subtraction battle against a family member
Read a non fiction text and write down 5 interesting facts	Write a written review of a movie or TV episode.	Create and calculate the cost of a family shopping list.
Use a dictionary to find 5 new words you don't know	Practice your handwriting	Read numbers up to tens of thousands
Think of 5 synonyms for a word you find in a text	Write a recount of your day	Practise times tables up to x10
Read a fictional story, draw a character and write describing words about the character	Choose 10 spelling words you would like to learn and rainbow write the words with different colours	Choose a maths activity from the home learning kit eg cards, dice
Read a novel and draw a picture of what you visualise the setting or character to look like	Write a persuasive text about why you deserve presents for your birthday	Use measuring cups/scales to measure out or weigh ingredients used for cooking
Read a text - summarise the main ideas in your own words, draw a picture to match	Write a procedure for something you would like to/have made	Use a dice to make some addition and subtraction problems to solve
Read an information book about an animal - write down some facts and make a poster about the animal	Go outside and find a nice area in the garden to write a short descriptive passage about the area	. Select a number to write in your workbook. Write/draw as many things you know about that number.
Read a fiction story and write a book report about it including - title, author, illustrator, characters, setting, main events, recommendation

