PRINCIPAL'S NEWS

'I sea, I care' is a program to raise our awareness of the impact of human created rubbish on our environment and the marine life in our oceans and waterways.

Last week I joined our I sea, I care ambassadors to attend the rubbish catchment funnel in Endeavor Hills and Frog Hollow Reserve, where we examined the amount of rubbish passing through our drainage system, the alkaline levels of the natural waterways and planted out a garden bed to regenerate vegetation in the area. We joined 12 other schools for the day and were impressed by the rubbish catchment system.

The girls have this message for our community -

'If we do not reduce the amount of rubbish that is being produced by people urgently the pollution levels will increase to non-reversible levels. Some marine animals are already facing extinction because of the polluted waterways. The local council has installed CDS (Continuous Deflective Separation) systems around the City of Casey. We saw the crane empty the system and noticed many plastic bags in the catchment basket - plastic bags which were NOT single use bags but had been thrown on the ground and washed down the drains. We must do our part to save our environment.' - Taylah, Aastha, Valentine

Our message now is to: - 'REDUCE, REDUCE, REDUCE'

Cheryl Van Deursen - Principal

Quote of the Week

'REDUCE, REDUCE, REDUCE'

The alkaline levels in the water ways are high and are killing the animals Which affects the entire system

Taylah
Aastha
Valentine

Rubbish blocks the drains, rubbish kills the fish, rubbish is a problem

‘Work needs to be done in the community, regardless of the weather’

It costs the council tens of thousands of dollars each year to empty the rubbish collected in these catchments

Curriculum

Student Reports and Progress Discussions

At the end of this term you will receive a written report on your child's academic progress so far this year. The report covers personal growth, achievements in Literacy, Numeracy and Units of Investigation, as well as each of the Specialist areas. The report also identifies future learning goals for your child, which will become the focus of their learning for semester two. Please take the time to read the report, as it will help provide an understanding of your child's current level of learning and achievement.

Early in term three, you will have an opportunity to meet with your child's Home Group teacher to discuss their progress so far, and future learning for your child. We hope that you all take the opportunity to meet with teachers, to be part of the learning process for your child.

“Children need to have certain basic experiences to build the competencies that will help them manage life – the good, the bad and the ugly. ”

Maggie Dent

Commonly known as the “queen of common sense”, Maggie Dent has become one of Australia’s favourite parenting authors and educators, with a particular interest in the early years, adolescence and resilience.

REAL KIDS IN AN UNREAL WORLD

Building resilience and self-esteem in today’s children (10 resilience building blocks).

This seminar will offer you practical, common-sense ideas and strategies to make small changes in your home, which will make a big difference to your children’s cognitive, physical, psychological, emotional and social health later in life.

CEAD Continuous Engagement and Development program

Are you worried, confused or concerned about parenting in today’s chaotic world?

Children need to have certain basic experiences to build the competencies that will help them manage life – the good, the bad and the ugly. Maggie has developed a common-sense, practical model of 10 building blocks that will reassure parents that what we have always known to be important in the early years of a child’s life is still important. This seminar will offer you practical, common-sense ideas and strategies to make small changes in your home, which will make a big difference to your children’s cognitive, physical, psychological, emotional and social health later in life.
