For our unit of 2D shapes the students went on a shape discovery walk around the school grounds to find as many shapes as possible. Everywhere they looked they found squares, triangles, circles and rectangles. Each student chose one shape to take a photo of and then used these pictures to produce a shape book which is now in the classroom library for all of them to read.